About MAS

A Lewes-based chamber orchestra of professional musicians dedicated to the performing of new and unusual works alongside the standard repertoire. MAS began in 1987 and has used the current name since 1991. The orchestra is under the directorship of Andrew Sherwood.

This Season

We are again playing music from professional composers who live in the South East. We will also include neglected pieces by Sussex composers of the 20th Century such as Bridge and Ireland. From the standard repertoire, we are including music by Bartok, Beethoven, Debussy, Elgar, Greig, Handel, Haydn, Mendelssohn, Mozart, Schubert and Sibelius.

Tickets:

Regular £10, Concession £7, Child free

All Lewes concerts – buy in person from Academy Music, Lansdown Place, Lewes.
