About MAS

A Lewes-based chamber orchestra of professional musicians dedicated to the performing of new and unusual works alongside the standard repertoire. MAS began in 1987 and has used the current name since 1991. The orchestra is under the directorship of Andrew Sherwood.

This Season

This season we are exploring a range of music by Mendelssohn – one item in each concert. As usual we will also feature music by local composers, music from the standard repertoire and some from less-well-known composers.

Tickets:

Regular £10, Concession £7, Child free

All Lewes concerts – now only available on the door or by telephone as indicated below.

NOTE: No telephone orders for Sept. 17
